

Library Hours

The library will be closed for Federal holidays. Any holiday that falls on a Monday, the library will be closed on Saturday at the discretion of the director. Occasionally the library will be closed for employee vacation or to attend professional development conferences. The library may close due to inclement weather and other problems. The Library Director and/or Library Board President may also close the library for special events or activities. All closings will be posted on both doors, front desk, social media and the library website.
